COMMENTS:

Brian Binkley stated upon receipt of his notice of delinquency issued in February 2021, he completed and mailed the disclosure from his local post office. He mailed it by regular mail and has no way of knowing whether his disclosure was lost, since he has had repeated issues with this local post office location losing his mail. Mr. Binkley stated he receives no compensation for the time spent performing his duties as Alderman.

RE: Late Fee Assessment Appeal

To Whom It May Concern,

I have received your letter dated June 7, 2021 regarding a late fee assessment for failing to file an affidavit. I am appealing this letter for the following reasons.

1. Upon receipt of your letter of February 2 regarding the failure to file, the following day on February 3 I completed the required document and mailed it to the Board of Ethics through the local post office. I have no way of knowing whether this letter was lost or not, however it is entirely likely as I have had repeated cases of lost mail through this post office location.
2. I complied with the letter of the law upon notice of delinquency.
3. The office which I hold is as an Alderman for the Town of Killian. In this position I receive absolutely zero compensation for the time that I spend performing my duties.

I will also be sending this via certified mail to ensure neither the post office nor the Board of Ethics can claim that the letter was never sent. The irony of having to spend my personal money and an inordinate amount of my time to address this for an unpaid position cannot be overstated.

Sincerely,

Brian Binkley
